- Under an initiative of the Government of India and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), to improve functionality and stability of the Indian financial system, all banks and financial institutions are required to share customer data with Credit Information Companies (CICs). CICs are repository of information shared by banks, NBFC etc. and they collect, maintain and provide credit information on all borrowers to financial institutions. To know more about CICs, please click here.
- To know the Voluntary Codes as prescribed by the "The Banking Codes and Standards Board of India (BCSBI)" in any Indian language of your choice, please click here
- As you may be aware that trading in foreign exchange (including through electronic/internet trading portals) is prohibited under the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), 1999. Further, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has clarified many a time that remittance in any form towards overseas foreign exchange trading (including through electronic/internet trading portals or by use of credit/debit cards) is not permitted. RBI has cautioned the public not to remit or deposit money or utilize credit/debit cards for such unauthorised transactions. The advice has become necessary in the wake of many unauthorized transactions being conducted by residents that have been reported to RBI. Accordingly, please take note of the prohibitions on using your credit/debit card for such unauthorized transactions in contravention to the FEMA & regulations thereunder and that violation(s), if any, would attract penalties or as RBI or the Enforcement Directorate may initiate against such residents.
- In case of non-payment, our Customer Assistance Specialists, engaged through our authorized agencies may contact you. To view the complete list of our authorised agencies, please Click here
- Please note that as per extant RBI regulation, debit from NRO A/c towards settlement of International charges on International Credit Cards is now subject to below restrictions on repatriation of NRO A/c balances: A Non-Resident Indian (NRI) or a Person of Indian Origin (PIO) may remit an amount up to USD one million, per financial year, out of the balances held in his Non- Resident (Ordinary) Rupee (NRO) account, for all bona fide purposes, subject to payment of applicable taxes in India, if any. Further, any repatriation from NRO A/c is subject to payment of applicable taxes in India.
- We want you to bank safe at all times. You may contact us toll free at 1800 267 2425 or +91 22 4955 2425 (local dialing) and log a complaint with us or block your card immediately, in case you experience any of the following situations.
