Important Information

- The "Available Credit Limit" shown in this statement takes into account charges incurred but not due. Please ensure that at least the "Minimum Amount Due" reaches us by the "Due Date".
- If the minimum amount due or part amount less than the total amount due is paid, interest charges are applicable (including fresh purchases, if any) on an average daily reducing balance method.
- For charges related to your Credit Card, please click here
- Under an initiative of the Government of India and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), to improve functionality and stability of the Indian financial system, all banks and financial institutions are required to share customer data with Credit Information Companies (CICs). CICs are repository of information shared by banks, NBFC etc. and they collect, maintain and provide credit information on all borrowers to financial institutions. To know more about CICs, please click here.
- To know the Voluntary Codes as prescribed by the "The Banking Codes and Standards Board of India (BCSBI)" in any Indian language of your choice, please click here
- ♦ As you may be aware that trading in foreign exchange (including through electronic/internet trading portals) is prohibited under the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), 1999. Further, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has clarified many a time that remittance in any form towards overseas foreign exchange trading (including through electronic/internet trading portals or by use of credit/debit cards) is not permitted. RBI has cautioned the public not to remit or deposit money or utilize credit/debit cards for such unauthorised transactions. The advice has become necessary in the wake of many unauthorized transactions being conducted by residents that have been reported to RBI. Accordingly, please take note of the prohibitions on using your credit/debit card for such unauthorized transactions in contravention to the FEMA & regulations thereunder and that violation(s), if any, would attract penalties or as RBI or the Enforcement Directorate may initiate against such residents.
- In case of non-payment, our Customer Assistance Specialists, engaged through our authorized agencies may contact you. To view the complete list of our authorised agencies, please Click here
- ♦ Please note that as per extant RBI regulation, debit from NRO A/c towards settlement of International charges on International Credit Cards is now subject to below restrictions on repatriation of NRO A/c balances:

 A Non-Resident Indian (NRI) or a Person of Indian Origin (PIO) may remit an amount up to USD one million, per financial year, out of the balances held in his Non- Resident (Ordinary) Rupee (NRO) account, for all bona fide purposes, subject to payment of applicable taxes in India, if any. Further, any repatriation from NRO A/c is subject to payment of applicable taxes in India.
- We want you to bank safe at all times. You may contact us toll free at 1800 267 2425 and log a complaint with us or block your card immediately, in case you experience any of the following situations.

CITIBANK NEVER ASKS FOR YOUR PIN, OTP, CVV AND IPIN

Citibank, Reserve Bank of India or Income tax department would never ask you for your personal or confidential information like Card / Bank account details, ATM PIN, Internet PIN, One Time Password (OTP), Online Authorization Code (OAC) over an email, SMS, IVR or outbound telephone call.

Did You Know?

Phishing is the fraudulent practice of sending emails claiming to be from reputable companies (including RBI, Income tax department) in order to induce individuals to reveal personal information, such as passwords and card details, online.

Vishing is the act of using the telephone (Mobile/Landline/IVR) in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft such as income tax refund, card activation or upgrade, rewards redemption etc.

Smishing is type of phishing attack where mobile phone users receive text / Multimedia (MMS) messages containing a Web site hyperlink, which if clicked would download a Trojan horse (spread viruses) to the mobile phone.

Let us take you through the tips to safeguard your account from such fraudulent attempts.

Do's

- Review your bank details periodically for any transactions that are not initiated by you.
- Look for secure session indicators like https:// and padlock on web sites that require personal information.
- Use updated anti-virus software and firewall software.
- Communicate information such as credit card numbers or account information only via a secure website or IVR.
- Ensure that your browser is up to date and security patches applied.
- If you reveal your bank account details mistakenly, report the theft of this information to the bank immediately.
- Always TYPE the bank's address (www.citibank.com/india) in your browser URL field to access and login to your account, rather than clicking through a hyper-link.

Don'ts

- Never click on hyperlinks within emails, instead verify the URL independently.
- Never reply to emails that seek personal information.
- Never respond to offers of money from abroad.
- Never respond to/ make remittances/ participate in schemes or offers from unknown entities.
- Do not reply to emails or SMS' claiming that the recipient has won a substantial sum of money in an online lottery or promotion.
- Avoid filling out forms in email messages that ask for personal financial information.
- Don't click or forward links in an email, instant message, or chat from unknown senders or if you suspect the authenticity of the message
- Never share confidential details like Card number, Card expiry date, CVV, OTP, Internet Password with anyone when you receive any unsolicited calls, SMS, IVR or email seeking for card activation or upgrade, income tax refund, reward point redemption. This could lead to fraud as Citibank will never ask for these details.
